Front-end Web Developer

We are looking for front-end developers, motivated and able to embrace the latest technologies, to join our team and bring their passion to life through our exciting projects.

Candidates must have demonstrated experience with HTML5 client applications development using various open-source frameworks and technologies.
Candidates are required to have highly developed interpersonal, written/verbal communication and own time management skills.

Location

More Screens, Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina

Responsibilities

Designing, developing, testing and deploying client application software.

Managing individual project priorities, deadlines, and deliverables.

Implementing and launching highly attractive, user-friendly, and user-facing features.

Designing and developing large-scale web applications

Code testing: edge cases, usability, and general reliability

Writing well designed, testable, efficient code

Executing full life-cycle software development

Skills

Minimum 2 years of highly relevant experience

Full proficiency in JavaScript, HTML5, and CSS3

Debugging

Hands-on experience in designing interactive applications

Experience with the responsive, adaptive and mobile design.

Experience with jQuery and AngularJS.

Familiarity with Bootstrap framework

Familiarity with CSS pre-processors like SASS or LESS

Familiarity with task runners like Grunt and Gulp

General experience with consuming third-party libraries and APIs