Rich Internet Application developer

You are welcome to apply if:

- you are looking to boost your career by working on significant projects

- you are eager to learn and work with the cutting-edge technologies

- you want to take part in developing modern web applications with a rich, responsive client component

- you view challenges as opportunities for self-improvement and professional advancement

- you take pride in the code you write

- your code follows software development standards and best practices

- you are self-reliant and proactive: you look for solutions rather than excuses

- you have at least 3 years of experience in software development

- you have a good grasp of the following concepts:

    - OOP

    - MVC / MVP / MVVM

    - Data binding

    - RESTful

    - Marshalling

    - Client-Server

    - Patterns

    - IoC

    - Domain Driven Design

Required Skills

- HTML 5

- CSS 3 / Less / Sass

- Responsive Design

- JavaScript

- JSON

- Ajax

- any of the following frameworks: Angular, Ember, Backbone, Ext JS

The following skills will be considered an asset:

- Dart

- Angular Dart

- Node.JS

- Java

- Spring

Your daily work will include the following tasks:

- developing rich client applications as parts of an enterprise software system

- writing robust, maintainable, extendable and reusable code

- writing comprehensive code documentation

- supporting your code with unit tests

Company offers:

- international environment

- work that is both challenging and rewarding

- growth potential

- the chance to join a team working with a diverse set of modern technologies

- excellent working conditions and equipment

- competitive salary and performance-based bonuses