

iOS Developer

We are looking for iOS developers, motivated and able to embrace the latest technologies, to join our team and bring their passion to life through our exciting projects.

Candidates must have demonstrated experience with development of native iOS client applications. Candidates are required to have highly developed interpersonal, written/verbal communication and own time management skills.

Location

More Screens, Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina

Responsibilities

Designing and developing innovative and attractive applications

Bug-fixing and enhancing the performance of client application software

Code testing: edge cases, usability, and general reliability

Writing well designed, testable, efficient code

Executing full life-cycle software development

Skill requirements

Minimum 2 years of highly relevant experience

Full proficiency in Objective-C, Swift, and Cocoa

Debugging

Hands-on experience in designing interactive applications

General experience with third-party libraries and APIs

IT Engineering education